BADDLEY BITTEN.

Editor Ledger: Henry Brown five year old son Ramsey was Baddley Bitten on Aug the 30 by Mr. Sullivan's dog. We went to Mayor of the town and he sent his Brother three to show the dog, and it was the first time I ever heard tell of send a Brother to shoot the dog that bit and other Brother as any deputy marshal as they are in this town if that had bin Henry Brown dog Mr. James Hedlin would have bin head captor if Enos Brown would work a long the street and whisel a little bit why he barking up and find and if the old man you—that up for the cause he fought for he would be taking up and slap in the Station house and made be pay for it and my husband had the first insulted and then was taking up and then was made pay for that the way they treat the Browns they haft to pay for ever thing they do. of course a good heart mother Blood run cold for he Children that she die for them and shed the last bit she got for them and this is the kind of marshal we have got in this town if it had a good hard working negro that refused to go to the station house they would be shooting down and I reckon a negro blood hain as good as a dog and shourley them that shoot the negro down they could pick up courage and shoot a dog down I valley my child blood more them a dog blood and hear is what I got to say about you all and if you think you can make any thing out of it try it maby you think you can make something out of it and if you dont like it lump it.

Mrs. Henry Brown
I dont ask any reward here on earth it is up in heaven I ask for mine.

ORANGEBURG.

Some few farmers have commenced cutting tobacco.

Edward Roe, Sr., one of our townsmen, is very sick with flux.

Born, to the wife of C. H. Harrison on September 1st, a fine son, weight twelve pounds.

Uncle Jack Perkins, who has been very sick for the past week, is somewhat better we are glad to say.

M. B. Tolle, one of our old bachelors, has gone to Boone county to attend an old Baptist Association.

Ben Pollard and wife of Sand Hill were the pleasant guest of father's family, Richard Willis of this place.

Rev. Zeigler, assisted by Rev. Spicer, commenced a series of meetings here at the Christian Church Sunday night.

MORANBURG.

Pat Osborne is ill at his home on the hill near here.

Elder Degman failed to fill his appointment here Sunday.

Master Clarence Brittain has returned from a week's visit to relatives at Mt. Sterling.

John L. Chamberlain and his best girl passed this way last Sunday evening en route to Tuckahoe.

Misses Sallie and Lizzie Hughes of near Fern Leaf visited Miss Millie Robinson of the Bottom Sunday.

Miss Mollie Slattery of the Bottom visited her father, Mike Slattery of the Creek, last Sunday.

We have seen many different marks on hogs, but Charley Warfield's mark takes the cake. He has painted them red.

Col. Ed. Burnett, accompanied by Miss Nannie Wells and Miss Emma Eitel, took in Charleston Bottom Sunday evening.

A much-needed rain fell here Sunday night, which will revive the fall pastures, and help along a little in the way of water.

A new monument has been erected in the Stone Church burying-ground. Now let the people go to work and put up a new fence.

W. L. Brittain and your correspondent caught a fine lot of fish last Saturday evening. Among the lot were about twenty very fine bass.

S. N. Robinson talks of attending the Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, which meets at Middlesboro, to-morrow.

The melancholy days have come, and to make things more gloomy Overseer William Eitel called the hands out to work the road Monday.

Wanted, every Republican in this section to attend the Republican Convention which takes place at the Courthouse in Maysville next Monday.

Mrs. Margaret Eitel will apply to the County Court next Saturday for a license to retail beer at her place of business on Lawrence creek. We extend our sympathy to Judge Plister.

The English sparrows are getting in their work on the growing corn by pecking the ends of the ears. They are very numerous. Should the fall be a wet one there will be much damaged corn.

Joseph Drago will move on the farm of John Broshers of Charleston Bottom next spring. He has contracted to raise fifty acres of corn, ten acres of tobacco and six acres of watermelons.

In conversation with several persons the other day, S. N. Robinson said: "I have a notion to vote the Republican ticket this fall." "Nixy," said "Squire Viceroy, and the 'Squire undertook to give us a few pointers on the Tariff question, but he failed to convince. Vic is an all round free-trader."

SELLS BROTHERS' show is at Hunting-ton to-day.

AMONG the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

—ADOPTED BY—

THE PUBLIC LEDGER CO.

OF MAYSVILLE, KY.

ART. 1. Be it known that William H. Cox, Thomas A. Davis, W. H. Wadsworth, Jr., Samuel T. Hickman, A. M. J. Cochran, C. Russell, George L. Cox and Allen A. Edmonds, have this day associated themselves together and become incorporated under and by virtue of Chapter 56 of the General Statutes of the State of Kentucky as The Public Ledger Company and by that name shall sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to alter same at pleasure.

ART. 2. The capital stock of said Corporation shall be $5,000, divided into shares of $10 each, and the same shall be transferable by written assignment on the certificate, and when transferred the certificate for same shall be surrendered to the Company and canceled, and new ones issued in lieu thereof.

ART. 3. This Corporation is organized for the purpose of publishing a newspaper in the city of Maysville, and distributing the same throughout the state of Kentucky, and for the carrying on of a general newspaper business in said city and state.

ART. 4. The principal place of business of said Corporation shall be at Maysville, Ky. The capital stock of said Corporation shall be increased at a meeting of the stockholders (those holding a majority of the stock assenting) to such amount as may be deemed proper. This Corporation may organize when 300 shares of its stock is subscribed. Stock may be paid for in money or equivalent at an agreed contract price, and any stock not subscribed for may be sold from time to time, as the Directors may direct and authorize, and the certificates of stock shall be signed by the President and Secretary, and the corporate seal shall be affixed to same.

ART. 5. The Corporation shall be managed by a Board of five Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the 1st day of March of each year. If, for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall continue as such until their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 6. The Directors shall choose from their number a President and Vice-President, and from said number or the stockholders a Secretary and Treasurer, or they may elect, they may combine these two offices into one. They shall elect an Editor, and may elect an assistant to the Editor, both of whose duties and tenure of office they may fix and prescribe by by-laws of the Company, which by-laws a majority of the Directors may adopt for the management of the Company's affairs.

ART. 7. The Company shall not incur an indebtedness exceeding, in the aggregate, at any one time, a sum equal to one-half of the capital stock paid in.

ART. 8. The private property of the stockholders of this Company shall be exempt from all debts or liabilities of the Corporation.

ART. 9. The Corporation shall begin when it shall have organized, as provided for herein, and shall continue as long as may be necessary, according to law.

In witness whereof, the said incorporators have hereunto set their hands this 10th day of March, 1892.
